Knights of Columbus Ball.

Knights of Columbus Ball.

The annual ball of the Knights of Columbus will be held at the Armory Monday evening. January 1:

The committee completed their plans some days ago and will submit them to the countil at a "smoker" to be held this evening. The members are looking forward to one of the most successful affairs of the kind ever held in Norwich. There has been a large sale of tickets and boxes and a large number of out of town friends of the council have signified their intention to attend. Drew's orchestra of 12 pieces will furnish music and Prof. Maher will prompt. Concert 3 to 9 p. m. Tickets $1.00.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

"The Rattlesnake," Immense Two Real Feature With Romaine Fielding.

All of the Colonial's patrons will greet with pleasure the announcement of another big feature two reel spectacle with Romaine Fielding. that peerless player of the big Lubin cast. This story is entitled "The Rattlesnake," and tells of Mexican life and the jealousy of a young Mexican lover, who to carry out his revenge, uses a rattlesnake. There is a near-calamity, but how it is averted must be told by the pictures. "N. F. A. vs. Bulkley High," is the great story of the annual football game on the Academy campus, and it is exceptionally good, nearly everyone of the students can be recognized, and the game is a snappy one. "Within the Hour," a powerful drama is followed by "Primitive Knight," while the comedy is found in "Kitty's Knight," a rollicking Irish story.

This is a brand new programme for today, and there is another one for tomorrow, with exceptional features.

Dutch Cap for Sweeping. A dainty cap that can be made to wear around the house in the morning or can be sufficiently utilitarian for the uses of a housemaid is made from half a yard of dotted swiss or of flowered lawn. To make the crown, one needs a section having one straight edge fourteen inches long and a curved edge, the center of which is ten inches from the center of the straight edge.

straight edge of the circular or crown piece, this to be used to pur through a half inch satin ribbon that will gather the crown across the back at the bot-

Full on the circular part of the crown to one edge of the twenty-inch plece. Then hem around the edge of the front section with a half-inch hem, catching the hem with a cross stitch or a herringbone stitch arranging so that the stitch will show on the outside when the front section is folded back over the crown seam. The hem can be run with a colored slik to match the color of the draw string used at the back of the crown.

THE DEEPER JOY.

know the springs of happiness are Beyond the graves wherein our treasures lie,
Beyond the memory of things that And the far dread in eyes that dream and weep;
Else would the tree of life no longer keep Lesiage and flower and winged tenantry.
But moldering stand the empty ages by,

Where none be found who either wake or sleep. Then come disease, disaster, and despair,
Shame and distempered thought,
man's utmost woe,
So shall we know the worst that earth
can give;
So shall we know—0, knowledge
strange and rare!—
From what unmeasured depth thosa
